

CURECANCER SUPPORTS THE EUROPEAN CANCER ORGANISATION
See the European Code of Cancer Practice

The European Cancer Organisation,https://www.europeancancer.org/, is a not-for-profit collection of member societies and patient advisory committees dedicated to working with cancer at a European level.

The aim of the organization is to bring together, for the first time, all parties with an interest in cancer care

- To effect policy change,
- Advocate for the cancer community and
- Strive for positive changes.

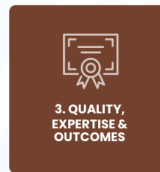

The mission of the organization is to

- Reduce the burden of cancer,
- Improve outcomes
- Improve the quality of care of cancer patients through cooperation amongst disciplines and professions.

As part of this endeavor, the European Cancer Organization, with contributions by cancer patients, patient advocates, and cancer professionals, has created the European Code of Cancer Practice (The Code) of the core requirements for good clinical cancer practice. The aim is to improve outcomes for all of Europe's cancer patients.
